

How can you attempt to dismantle the "Do not Call" list that has been signed by so many people? Do we have to pay you off like the businesses who interrupt our days and intrude on our privacy? How dare you endorse such intrusion.